

International Freight Drone

Human Trafficking Policy

IFD strictly prohibits employees, subcontractors, subcontractor employees, and agents from engaging in human trafficking-related activities. These activities include engaging in sex trafficking, procuring commercial sex acts (even if this practice is legal in the jurisdiction where it transpires), using force, fraud, or coercion to subject a person to involuntary servitude, or obtaining labor from a person by threats of serious harm to that person or another person, among others.

IFD also prohibits employees, subcontractors, subcontractor employees, and agents from engaging in practices relating to trafficking in persons, including:

- Destroying or otherwise denying access to an employee's identity or immigration documents;
- Using misleading or fraudulent practices to recruit employees, such as failing to disclose key terms and conditions of employment;
- Using recruiters that do not comply with local labor laws;
- Charging employees recruitment fees;
- Failing to provide return transportation to certain employees who are brought to a country for the purpose of working on a U.S. Government contract;
- Providing housing that fails to meet host country standards; and
- Failing to provide an employment contract or work document where required by law.

IFD operating companies will take appropriate disciplinary action for violations of these rules, up to and including discharge of employees, subcontractors, and agents.

IFD operating companies must cooperate fully with the U.S. Government or other appropriate governmental authorities in audits or investigations relating to such violations. Employees of IFD operating companies are required to cooperate in any internal or external investigation of suspected wrongdoing under this policy.

Mandatory Reporting Requirements

Employees having knowledge of credible information concerning actual or potential violations of this policy must report them immediately in accordance with the IFD Escalation Procedure. Timeliness of reporting any suspected violation is critical as the U.S. Government has imposed an especially stringent reporting obligation when there is credible information of violations. Failure to report actual or potential illegal behavior or actual or potential violations of this policy may also subject employees to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

INTERNATIONAL FREIGHT DRONE

Human Trafficking Policy

IFD has many channels available to receive reports of possible violations of policy. However, given the immediacy of our notification requirements to the U.S. Government, possible violations of this policy should be reported directly to the Our Integrity Line or Corporate Internal Audit, in accordance with the IFD Escalation Procedure. Employees may also report possible violations to line management, human resources, compliance professionals throughout the organization, the General Counsel and members of the IFD Law Department concurrent to reporting to Corporate Internal Audit or the Our Integrity Line. Any person who receives reports of possible violations under this policy must notify senior management immediately. When making a report, employees are encouraged to share as much information as possible so that appropriate action can be taken.

In addition to the reporting requirements described above, it is possible for IFD employees to report activity inconsistent with this policy to a third-party managed Our Integrity Line. Such reporting does not satisfy an employee's obligation to report to IFD credible information concerning actual or potential violations of this policy immediately, in accordance with the IFD Escalation Procedure.

Non-Retaliation Policy

IFD companies do not tolerate retaliation or threats of retaliation against anyone who raises a concern under this policy or who assists with an internal or governmental audit or investigation. Any employee who engages in retaliation or threats of retaliation will face disciplinary action, which could include termination of employment.